

In commemoration of National HIV and Aging Day (September 18)
Gay Men's Health Crisis presents

We Aren't Dead Yet! What Do We Do Now?

A community discussion for HIV-positive and HIV-negative survivors of the epidemic

Wednesday, September 17

6:30 PM to 8:30 PM

GMHC, 446 West 33rd Street – 7th floor
(between 9th and 10th Avenues) NYC

Guest Panelists:

Jim Albaugh, long-time survivor of AIDS

Jim Eigo, ACT UP New York

Judith Rabkin, PhD, MPH, Department of Psychiatry,
Columbia University Medical Center

Guest Moderator:

Perry Halkitis, PhD, MPH, Professor, NYU & author of
The AIDS Generation: Stories of Survival and Resilience

After the discussion, there will be a brainstorm session from 8 PM to 8:30 PM where we want to hear from veterans, survivors and allies about what kinds of support and services you need.

The discussion is free and open to all.

Light refreshments will be served. For more information, email krishnas@gmhc.org or call (212) 367-1016.
